

SuperScienceMe: ResEARCH in your REACH

European Researchers' Night

SuperScienceMe is a dip into the knowledge in search of scientific and cultural Calabrian wonders

Among experiments, games, demonstrations and artistic and cultural performances, the three public universities and six research institutes involved give a fascinating and stimulating journey characterized by the passion for research, the transmission of knowledge, the share of the findings and of the results.

The project aims to introduce people, with a special focus on young people, to science in a simple way demonstrating them that science is not separated from real life.

Furthermore, in line with “European Year of Cultural Heritage”, for the 2018 edition, the project aims to promote Calabrian cultural heritage by means of the pre-event Discover Museums and a Brokerage event discovering Calabrian museums and archaeological sites and innovative research results in the this field.
