

The ebalance-plus comprehensive energy balancing platform enables different electric grid players and operators (prosumers, DER exploitation managers, energy aggregators and DSOs) to deal with the available flexibility to increase the grid's stability and security.

Our home energy management mobile app engages users with its customised interfaces for stakeholders such as building users, electrical vehicle (EV) users, facility managers, and system operators.

UNICAL demo site

This project has received funding from the European Union's H2020 program under Grant Agreement No. 864283